

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

The Prudential Insurance Company of America,

v.

Civil No. 09-CV-00136-JM

Gary M. Dion and Richard H. Wright, Defendants

ORDER

The defendants in this interpleader action have reached an agreement regarding the disbursement of life insurance proceeds. Plaintiff, The Prudential Insurance Company of America, has previously been dismissed from the action.

The stipulation and settlement agreement between the defendants is approved. The proceeds of the two insurance policies, deposited with the court, will be distributed in the following manner:

a. The amount deposited with respect to the Group Life Insurance, totaling $108,882.14, together with interest, shall be distributed to Gary M. Dion, representing exactly one-half (½) of the total proceeds:

b. The Accidental Death Benefit, totaling $108,882.14, together with interest, shall be distributed to Richard H. Wright, representing exactly one-half (½) of the total proceeds.

The Clerk is directed to enter judgment dismissing this case with prejudice. The docket shall be marked "neither party, no costs, no further action for the same cause."

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Justo Arenas', written over a horizontal line.

Justo Arenas
United States Magistrate Judge

Date: July 9, 2009

cc: Carl D. Hanson, Esq.
Friedrich Kreutzer Moeckel, Esq.